6. 2024 Treatment Alternative and Diversion (TAD) Grant Application Update:

The application is not posted yet. It should be posted by the end of the month. Ms. Mary Rideout is attending a Webinar. Will present the application to the CJCC at the next meeting or if it is due prior will send out to the committee.

7. OWI Court Update:

We are trying to re-establish and OWI Court in Oneida County. Meeting being scheduled with the Human Service Center who was the previous provider. Have provider who may be interested. The goal is to get up and running in 2024. Funding is available through the Department of Corrections. Will need a supervising agent. Will continue with meeting with the Human Service Center, Department of Corrections, and New Provider to get OWI Court re-established.

8. Human Services in Oneida County Update:

Ms. Mary Rideout explained that the Oneida County Board passed the Resolution to withdraw from the Tri-County Agreement effective 12/31/2024. A consultant will be hired to assist in determining a new structure. Ms. Mary Rideout, Mr. Mike Fugle, and Sheriff Grady Hartman are meeting with the other 3 counties and also just Oneida County to figure out a plan. If you have any questions or hear any questions/concerns please bring those to Ms. Mary Rideout.
